January 2018 Meeting

Our last Meeting was our AGM. Twenty-three Members turned out for the Meeting. Richard opened the Meeting at approximately 10.20. He welcomed all those present and then handed over to Pete for his report on the Club's funds. Pete explained all money paid out which amounted to £1,769 and all money received which amounted to £2,757. This gave a net profit of £988 over the year. The figures were accepted by all present. He reported that the Club now had £4,752 in the bank and £297 in cash.

Pete went on to thank Richard for all the work he had done on behalf of the Club ie – his donations, raffle prizes, prize money, etc. He added that Richard not only put money into the Club, but a lot of time as well. Thanks Richard for all you do.

The Officers and Committee then stood down and a new Committee was elected. As you will see above, this has not changed very much.

The monthly meetings were provisionally agreed and these are also shown above.

You will notice that a lot of our Meetings are taken up with small shows which seem to attract more Members to our Club so, on these days, please try and put some birds out or just come along and support your Club.

We will give you reminders of all events in Cage & Aviary and in the Newsletters.

At all our meetings we hope to have birds and equipment for sale.

If you have any birds or equipment for sale let me know and we will also try to advertise them in the Newsletter.

At this time of the year I have to remind you that subs are now due. They are £15.00 single and £20.00 for partnerships. These have to be paid before March or your Newsletters will be suspended.

I do hope everyone will rejoin, but if for some reason, you are thinking of not renewing would you kindly let me know why. Perhaps it's something we can sort out.

If you have any thoughts on anything that might help promote the Club in any way please get in touch.

Over the many years I have been a Member of this Club, Members come and go for one reason or another, but recently we have had a large influx of new Members. Some of these have taken up positions in helping to run the Club so, with their help and your support, I hope that the Club can go from strength to strength.

I would like to welcome all the new Members to our Club. I hope you enjoy your time at the Club as much as I have over the years. (See details below)
